

The mirror showed a normal smiling boy with bright eyes but that was only the external view. Underneath he was a world famous singer-songwriter who had found the pure power of singing. He wore a red tie and a black tuxedo with bright black trousers and he was driving through a crowd of his fans in a Pagani Zonda R!

By Anthony
inspired by Joy Cowley

