

My Grandpa

My grandpa is the best grandpa that I know, because when he comes back from the airport he always has something special to give me. His culture is Cambodian and when he was little he had many family there, 46 cousins and 22 brothers. He wears two sweaters in the cold time and hot time. He has the same eyes as me. I mostly speak Chinese the same as him. He is half adult, and half grandpa, and that's why his hair is grey, and black. His hair style is Peter Parker but higher. My grandpa lives to give my brothers and I presents, but I don't know why. My brother Wilson says, "It's to celebrate that he is back from Cambodia." I feel that I am special to him because every time he comes back from the airport he always gets what I want and what my cousin wants, he is like a mind reader. That's why he's so special to me.
